

In history we are learning about...

The Stone and Bronze Ages

Key vocabulary

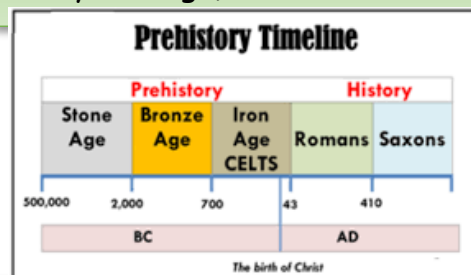

- Neanderthal - an extinct species of human that was widely distributed in ice-age Europe between c. 120,000 and 35,000 years ago
- Hunter-gatherer- a hunter-gatherer is a human living a lifestyle in which most or all food is obtained by foraging and hunting.
- Civilisation- the society, culture, and way of life of a particular area.
- Neolithic - the later part of the Stone Age, when ground or polished stone weapons and implements prevailed.
- Primitive - relating to somebody or something from the early stage in the evolutionary or historical development.

Sticky knowledge

- Know the main differences between the Stone and Bronze ages.
- Know what it is meant by 'hunter-gatherers.'
- The Stone Age is given to the earliest period of human culture when stone tools were first used. (2.5 million years ago).

Links to previous learning

- Early civilisations - Romans and Greeks

Aspirations

- Archaeologist
- History teacher
- Historian

Characteristics needed for this topic:

- Listening and communicating.
- Making links.